Guitarists Needed

The CSA Music Ministry team is in need of more guitarists. Comfort with the basic and barre chords is all you need to know. Also, the CSA music ministry is always open to any singer or instrumentalist. If interested, contact any of the musicians after Mass or the Director of Music, Anthony Nardino, in the choir loft after the 8 pm Mass or email him at: <ARNardino@gmail.com>.

Superbowl's Coming!

Join us on Sunday February 5, Superbowl Sunday. We have a special Mass schedule that day:

12:00 pm Busch Student Ctr, room 120

3:00 pm St. Peter's Church

3:00 pm Cook Student Ctr, GH Cook Rm

3:00 pm Livingston Student Ctr, rm 202

Following the 3:00 pm Masses, join us at the Catholic Center for a Superbowl Party! We'll start off with a pickup game of football, then watch the game on our two big screen hi-def TV's, while enjoying great free food and company. Not really into football? No worries! Come and shoot pool, play foosball, ping pong or board games. Or just come and hang out. All are welcome - bring a friend!

CSA Spring

February 24-26

Here is a chance to get away from the pressures of college life for a weekend and spend time with new friends, yourself and God. It is a fun weekend with time for prayer, spiritual talks and recreational activities. Cost is only $40.00, which covers all meals and supplies for the weekend. You can pay online on our website, www.catholic-center.rutgers.edu, or pay at the Catholic Center. Registration is required - please apply early to assure your spot! We supply transportation to and from the retreat site, Camp Tecumseh in Pittstown, NJ. Application deadline is Sunday Feb. 19, 2012. See registration form for complete details (like what to bring). Don't miss out on a great weekend!

Spirit Nite

Join us on Tuesday January 3 at 8 pm in the Busch Student Center, room 174 for our weekly Spirit Nite. Tonight's topic is: "Abandonment". Have you ever felt abandoned by friends, family or even God? Most people have, at one time or another. Come and find out about this feeling, and what you can do about it. Always included in the night is prayer, music and praise.

On Campus Bible Studies

Bible Studies begin this week! Here are the days and times:

Cook/Douglass Student Ctr, 6 pm on Monday

Livingston Student Ctr- 7 pm on Wed

College Ave Student Ctr, 7 pm on Wed

Busch Student Ctr - 1 pm on Friday

Attention Rutgers Catholic Graduate Students!

If you're a grad student at Rutgers and interested in meeting other Catholic grad students to share and discuss your faith with, then you should come to The Aquinas Grad Group at the Catholic Center! We meet on Monday nights in the Catholic Center, 84 Somerset Street (next to St. Peter's Church). We meet at 7:30 to begin discussion, and will end at about 8:55 for Night Prayer. Tonight we will do reading from the Divine Office and learn about St. John Bosco.

Email <theaquinasgroup@gmail.com> for information, invitation to the mailing list, questions, and so on. Additionally, our Facebook page is The Aquinas Group: Rutgers Catholic Grad Students.

Even if you're not available for our regular meetings, please do get in touch. We also plan various social gatherings outside of regular meetings and would love to meet you!

Taize Prayer

At Taize prayer, the mystery of God becomes tangible through the beauty of simplicity. Come experience how both song and silence can be used to praise God. The format is 20 minutes of meditative song and prayer, and 20 minutes of silent meditation, followed by another 20 minutes of each. Please join us at St. Peter's Church on Monday Feb. 13, from 8-9 pm to experience this wonderful way of praying!
