5 THINGS NOT TO SAY!

AT THE post mass ice cream social

2

You know eating this strawberry ice cream reminds me of a scene from Hannibal...

3

I've been thinking more about celibacy since the 10th anniversary of my last date

4

Chocolate really inflames my kidneys...So, what's your major?

5

You could save your body the trouble by just applying that ice cream directly to your hips.

I believe for every drop of rain that falls a parking ticket is issued on campus
